KAGERO BUNKO

Used book store that concentrates not so much on the written text but more towards the visual aspect such as art design books, children's books, coffee table books, etc. In the Japanese area they have books ranging from the late 1800's and Western books from the turn of the 19 th Century. The stores atmosphere is very subtle and seems to attract a more female clientele who browse through their stock of vintage fashion magazines from Europe. Reasonably priced, many bargains can be found on the stores front porch which includes old postcards, to the inside ...

Great place to find really old manga's for boys and girls from 1940's to the 60's. For example from the 1950's they have such titles as Shonen Magazine and Shonen King for boys and for girls Margaret and Shojou Friend. The store is well organized and it is easy to search for what you are looking for. Most of the customers are in their 50's to 60's, looking for items from their youth but recently younger people have been coming here as well as there is an interest in these days gone by. Popular items are by such artists as Reiji Matsumoto, Kazuo Umezu an ...
